

Local Guard in Mock War At Camp Shelby This Week

By CHRISTOPHER BELL
CAMP SHELBY, Aug. 1.—Surrounded by pitch darkness and the intermittent, staccato sounds of night-time noise-makers, ninety National Guardsmen of Bay St. Louis' Company C, 890th Engineer Aviation Battalion, undertook a tactical problem in field exercise bivouac for six hours Tuesday night.

An "enemy" patrol composed of ten scouts tried to infiltrate the company's perimeter defenses and those of three other companies participating in the training. They were successful several times.

Operation bivouac was just one of many exercises. Company C has undertaken during its two-weeks of summer field training here, which ends Sunday morning when the group will return to Bay St. Louis at 11 o'clock.

Wednesday, two Sea Coast Echo correspondents and Parham McKay, editor of the Pass Christian Tarpon-Beacon, were guests of General William P. Wilson, adjutant general of Mississippi National Guard, and were flown here from Gulfport by a C-46.

Lt. Irvin Kingston, Company C commander, said that the company's two major projects, the construction of a 100-by-20 foot quonset hut and a 100-car parking lot, should be completed by Friday.

The 890th battalion, largest in Mississippi, is composed of 557 men and is commanded by Major P. W. Shaw, Gulfport. Three other companies, Piquette, Hattiesburg and Gulf port, join Bay St. Louis in forming the battalion.

Forty-five two-men pup tents housed Company C during the 60-hour field training, while a mess hall tent and company post were also put up in the area, which gave war-time atmosphere to the operation.

Capt. H. C. Fischer, battalion adjutant, led the "enemy" scouts Tuesday night on raids of the four companies in a wooded area, on the north side of Camp Shelby.

Only weapons were firecrackers, used by three enemy officers in place of grenades. Theoretically, a guard-soldier is "killed" when the firecracker explodes nearby and is "dead" until the six-hour alert is over.

A grasp meant you were captured. It gave many guardsmen a chance to see what it is like standing watch in pitch darkness in thick woods.

Fischer said, while acclaiming the operation "very successful." He admitted that he himself was almost captured instead of leading the pursuer into a pre-arranged trap.

The operation had its funnier moments too. One guard of Gulfport's Company A tackled an object he had stared at for a long while only to find it a stump. He said he was sure it moved.

Company C lost three men and a jeep, but captured two of the scouts and interrogated them for information and maps.

Tuesday afternoon the entire battalion witnessed a demonstration of how a change-over from an engineer battalion to an infantry outfit can be made quickly, the change being the substitution of heavy weapons for machines.

Wednesday the unit had just completed field training and resumed full-force work on the two projects.

The battalion adjutant said a quonset hut construction runs over the two-weeks allotted, but the 890th battalion is the only group to have completed the quonset hut projects, and Company C is scheduled to complete their hut Friday.

At noon Wednesday we were treated to chow with Company C's unit in the field.

General Wilson said that an armory building is soon slated for Bay St. Louis, and also that Pass Christian can have a National Guard unit "tomorrow" if at least fifteen men are assembled and a commander obtained.

Lt. Kingston expressed thanks to Hancock county employers who supported the local guard by allowing their workers to attend the camp training.

Mrs. Willard Gavagnie assisted with the Library Story Hour this past week.

GAL ROCKS IN, ROLLS SINGER FOR AUTOGRAPH

For two straight weeks rock 'n' roll king Elvis Presley dodged Gulf Coast teenage autograph-hounds while he was vacationing in Biloxi mid-July, but a Bay St. Louis baby-sitter topped all fan clubbers when she cornered Presley at his home in Memphis, Tenn.

Thirteen-year-old Martha Carr, 116 Sycamore St., visiting relatives in Memphis, was peevish at missing her idol on the Coast, but collected his signature Tuesday at his home two blocks away from where Martha is staying.

Deny Temporary Injunction To Halt Street Repair Bonds Permanent Bond Injunction Sought

First class of the local Ground Observers Corps will wind up their course Monday.

The group still needs personnel, and anyone interested is requested to attend the class at the RFA building at 3 p.m. Monday night.

Petition for a temporary injunction to halt issuance of $50,000 street improvement bonds for the City of Bay St. Louis was denied by Special Chancery Judge William P. Hewes at 11 a.m. Saturday in the courthouse object to the issuance of the bonds.

At the same time, Judge Hewes set a hearing for 10 a.m. Aug. 4 on a petition of objectors to the issuance of the bonds for a permanent injunction against the bond issue.

Petition against the bonds was filed by John A. Egloff, Nolan A. Kingston, Edward A. Fayard, Peter G. Fayard, Emile G. Piazza, Roland Cuevas, Herman J. Meier, John Green, Paul Egloff and Harold J. Favre.

The petitioners were represented by Jesse Shanks and Bill Andrews, Purvis attorneys. Representing Bay St. Louis were city attorney Dan M. Russell Jr. and Charles R. Galloway, Gulfport city attorney.

Petitioners against the bonds claimed they had filed a petition containing 20 per cent of the qualified electors of Bay St. Louis. According to law, the city can issue the bonds without an election unless 20 per cent of the voters protest by petition. In that event, the city must call an election to vote on the bond issue.

The city denied that 20 per cent of the electors had petitioned against the bond issue. They claimed that over 50 qualified electors had requested in writing that their names be withdrawn from the petition, some of whom alleged that those securing their signatures "misrepresented the true facts to them."

The city also maintained that the objectors were "premature."

Plans include repairing and hard-surfacing the following streets:

- Railroad Ave. (Washington to city limits); Ramoneda St.; Carroll Ave. (resurfacing); State St.; Hancock Ave. (Dunbar to city limits); St. George Webster; Leopold; Sycamore (from Old Highway to city limits); Ruella; Thomas (Dunbar to city limits, also east of Dunbar);

Austin Lane; Citizen St. (Old Spanish Trail to city limits); Kellar St.; Booker to St. Francis; Watts St.; Union St. (from Necaise to Martin); McDonald's Lane; Julia St. (Dunbar to city limits); Carroll Ave. (from Dunbar to US 90).

Services Held For Last Rites Held For C. D. Lundy

She is survived by three daughters and two sons, Mrs. J. C. Nierly, Shadell, La., Mrs. Ora Holden, Piquette, Mrs. Theo Bourgeois, Bay St. Louis, Albert F. Luxich and Henry Luxich, both of Bay St. Louis.

O'Connell, building contractor C. G. Oden, Southern Bell Manager J. C. Dabney, Mayor Scaife, Chamber of Commerce secretary Mabel Green, Commissioner Warren Traub and city attorney Dan M. Russell Jr.

Work on the new Southern Bell dial building got underway Tuesday when Mayor John Scaife turned the first shovel of dirt at the corner of St. Francis and St. John streets.

Construction of the new building is part of Southern Bell's program to expand and improve Bay St. Louis' telephone service, the company said. The building will house the new 350-A unattended dial of-

Two Hurt In Auto Smashup

Two persons were hospitalized with underdetermined injuries suffered in an automobile accident near the intersection of U. S. Highway 90 and White Harbor Road early today, when their vehicle went out of control, skidded 405 feet and overturned several times.

The victims were identified as Joseph L. Gilbert, 20, Bay St. Louis, and 53c Roy Fairconnet, Bay St. Louis, and Fort Lewis, Wash.

The extent of injuries suffered by the two men was not available immediately from Kessler Air Force Base Hospital but investigating officers said Gilbert may have suffered fractures. The men were removed to the hospital by Riemann's ambulance.

Long Beach Police Ptn. Philip Broadus and Gene Allen said Gilbert, driving the vehicle westward, lost control of the car and failed to negotiate a curve in the highway. The officers said the accident occurred about 4:45 a.m.

The officers said Gilbert was traveling between 95 and 100 miles an hour when the mishap occurred. The automobile went out of control in the curve, hit the neutral ground, traveled across the highway and struck a curb, "jack-knifed" twice, and clipped a limb from a tree ten feet above the ground.

Fairconnet was thrown 35 feet from the car when it stopped rolling and Gilbert was pinned in the wreckage several minutes before he was removed from the gas-drenched wreckage.

J. W. Sandre, 827 28th St., Gulfport, witnessed the accident. The vehicle, owned by Fairconnet's father was demolished.

Other officers at the scene were Pass Christian Chief of Police Adolph Poyvando and Assistant Chief Lester Garriga.

Report from Mich. Girl Scout Camp

By BARBARA ALLEN

We had the most wonderful Fourth of July! Everyone went to the arena where a band played good March Music. Miss Layton served as Mistress of ceremonies. Everyone stood and saluted as girls from each of the 180 troops bore the American flags into the arena. There was a choral reading which told the history of the Declaration of Independence and the names of the states were called off as they paraded into the arena with the state flags and some of America's historical flags. As the ceremony progressed more and more people crowded the arena. Mrs. Lillian Gilbreth (or "Cheaper by the Dozen") gave the most wonderful talk. She has been in scouting 25 years.

Jo Ann Warren, who placed first out of 2,000 who entered the essay contest, read her essay "What America Means to Me." It is very beautifully written. Charlton Heston, movie star, also talked to us. When the flags were retired from the arena about 2,000 girls rushed out to the platform to get Mr. Heston's autograph! They ran along side his car as he left.

At the Trading Post We went to the Trading Post and then to the exhibit tents. These tents have hundreds of exhibits of handicrafts, very pretty pottery, wood carvings, pettinot, quilts, scrapbooks, maps and model log cabins, forts and midwest Pennsylvania Dutch furniture.

The Fireworks That night we went back to the arena for fireworks. They were just gorgeous. There was an American flag, two girl scout emblems, thousands of rockets and sparklers. It lasted for well over an hour and we sang songs which were tape recorded.

At our own camps we had snacks before going to bed. When I woke up this morning it was raining "cats and dogs". There is so much grass that rain doesn't leak inside the bottom of the tent even though we are not trenched. I put on my raincoat and went for food. It has been cold enough for sweaters during the day so the raincoat felt good. Rain didn't bother anybody a bit, except we did no washing.

Demonstrations We had demonstrations. Lathier and I went to the Demonstration Arena. There were girls from New York making Fleming Flapjacks, some making maple sugar candy, others making barbecued chicken and still others doing folk dances and square dancing. Our fish-net demonstration drew a large

When Roundup Opened As you know, when we arrived at Milford on June 29. We took charterer Greyhound Buses through Detroit to the camp I like Detroit very much. Most of the older ones resemble castles. The streets are clean and the neutrals beautifully landscaped. We passed very lovely houses and the four bus loads of us sang "Dixie" all through the streets and shouted such things as "Save your Confederate Money, boys, the South will rise again." Every one smiled and waved to us. The bus driver told us about Detroit as we drove through.

The Camp Entrance had a Chick Wagon with a sign: Welcome to the 1956 Senior Girl Scout Roundup. We followed a paved road through lovely grounds until we came to the center of the camp. Here we found the arena, trading post, and post office. These are all large circus-like tents.

Model Camps Cuts and I dropped by to see the model camps. They show how to set up camps; different types of tents, cooking equipment, etc. One really neat deal was a collapsible shelf. We learned how to properly pack a rucksack. There were some pastel tents which girls had made themselves. We saw some people gathered around and a press photographer at work. In a circle on the ground some girls were doing "Indian Wrestling." That's the last thing I expected here.

Last night we went to hear a talk by a nature expert then went to a party and finally ended up eating watermelon. These Yankees have the best of our Southern watermelons. They surely taste good.

Today we took showers which were like ice-water, washed our hair, polished shoes and had inspection. We fared pretty well except for our sagging tarp.

Six New Oil Fields Opened So Far This Year

Six new oil fields, one new gas field, and one shallow Salt Dome were discovered in Mississippi during the first six months of 1956, bringing the total of oil and gas producing fields in the state to one hundred and eighteen, according to figures released by the Mississippi-Alabama Division of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association.

The new discoveries are the South Kingston and Southeast Ellisville Fields in Adams County, the Ansley Field in Hancock County, North Fayette Field and Rodney Island in Jefferson County, the Fort Adams Field in Wilkinson County, the Okolona Gas Field in Monroe County, and the Weston Salt Dome in Copiah County.

The new discoveries are the result of eighty-three wildcat drilling attempts made in the state the first six months of the year. Three-fourths of these were drilled in Adams, Wilkinson, and Jefferson Counties.

The discovery of the Ansley Field in Hancock County less than five miles from Mississippi Gulf Coast waters is a significant development this year, as it focuses attention to the possibility of production being found on off-shore lands. About one-third of the off-shore area of 900,000 acres is now under lease, and the State Mineral Lease Commission is expected to offer the remainder for lease sometime this year.

During the first half of the year a combined total of 215 wildcat and development wells were drilled, compared to a total of 235 for the same period of last year. Sixty-six of the wells were completed for oil and seventeen for gas, with 132 recorded as dry holes.

For a comparable period last year eighty-two wells had been completed for oil and ten for gas, with 143 listed as dry holes.

Patricia Gex Bride of Charles B. Dickinson

An outstanding event of interest here on the Gulf Coast was the marriage Saturday morning of Miss Patricia Ann Gex, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Marion Gex, to Mr. Charles Bayne Dickinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin Dickinson, Griffin, Georgia.

The wedding was celebrated at a nuptial mass at ten o'clock with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael McCarthy officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated for the occasion with a profusion of white asters and gladioli in gold vases upon the altar. Tall palms and baskets of the same flowers were placed down the aisle alternating at the pews. During the ceremony, Miss Billie Gene Bruns of Birmingham, bride, sang "Panis Angelicus," ham, Ala., a close friend of the "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy," and Gounod's "Ave Maria."

The lovely bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a gown of white Rosepoint Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The pointed bodice had a square, scalloped neckline and short, shirred cap sleeves. The bouffant skirt was fashioned into wide bands of lace and shirred tulle which ran from the hemline in front up over the sides into deep points in the back, forming a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a small lace cap and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and Fleur D'Amour, and a handmade lace handkerchief which was used by the maternal grandmother on her wedding day.

Miss Joy Starita was the bride's maid of honor; Mrs. Guy Billups of Hammond, La., a cousin of the bride, was her matron of honor; and Miss Gail Ellison, Birmingham, Ala., was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of white organza made ballerina length. The material of the dresses was embellished with an all-over design of little flowers and worn over pale yellow taffeta. The fitted bodices had wide portrait necklines, fastened in the back with wide bows and streamers reaching to the hemlines. They carried cascade arrangements of yellow feathered carnations and English Ivy, with similar wreaths in their hair.

Mr. Dickinson had as his attendants, his brother, John Dickinson, Jr., as best man and as groomsmen Messrs. Lucien Gex, and Gerald Gex, brothers of the bride. The ushers were John Calhoun, New Orleans, Marion Wolfe, Jr., New Orleans, and Hartwell Gex and Milton A. Phillips, Jr., Bay St. Louis.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother, the former Geraldine Calhoun of New Orleans, wore a gown of ice blue silk lined with white straw trimmed with matching blue illusion. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage bouquet of white orchids. The groom's mother, who assisted her and members of the wedding party in receiving, chose for the wedding a beige silk suit with white accessories and a corsage of white orchids. She is the former Miss Oliver Bayne, Thomaston, Georgia.

The home was decorated with arrangements of white asters, white gladioli and greenery. The bride's table, covered with a white embroidered linen cloth, was centered with a large, four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Silver appointments completed the decorations in the dining room.

The bride wore for traveling a shell pink linen model, made on Princess lines in the front and featuring a bustle in the back. It was trimmed with a small white, linen collar and had self-colored buttons down the front. With it she wore a matching pink hat, white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

MRS. CHARLES BAYNE DICKINSON, NEE MISS PATRICIA ANN GEX

The bride is a graduate of Captain in the U. S. Army, and W. W. Calhoun, Galveston, St. Joseph's Academy and the is an electrical engineer for Sr. Miss Gertrude Calhoun, University of Alabama. ## KEEP OFF THE GRASS

It always makes me mad when I see a sign that says "U. S. Government property. Keep off the grass."

Just who is the U. S. Government, anyway, and who does that property belong to? Me, by golly, and 64,999,999 other taxpayers like me. I paid for that grass, and will be maintaining it for the rest of my natural life, and if I went to walk on it, roll in it, or eat it, it belongs to me.

Seems like I should be able to stroll across my own property, or take a snooze under one of my shade trees, any time I feel like it, without somebody putting up a sign saying "Keep Off."

Steve Marden in the Oceans Springs News recounts the time during Mark Twain's news paper days Mr. Twain received a letter from a subscriber stating that he found a spider in his newspaper.

He wanted to know if it was good or bad omen, Twain replied:

"Finding a spider in your newspaper is neither good nor bad luck. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

Keith Tonkel, former Bay St. Louis boy, has just completed a two-year summer ministry with a Gallilean Service sponsored by the Rolling Fork Methodist Church last Sunday.

An Era Passes—The old olive drab post office letter boxes scattered around town are no more. They have all received a new coat of bright paint—blue on the bottom, red on top.

BIRTH CERTIFICATES

If your child needs a birth certificate, don't delay getting it.

That's the warning from the Vital Statistics Division of the State Board of Health, which expects to be deluged with applications for certificates as schools open again and parents of the some 100,000 beginners realize that the state law requires each school child to verify age by a birth certificate.

According to the ruling of the attorney general's office, the small plain photostatic copy sent to the mother soon after the birth of the child is acceptable for school purposes, provided it has the number of the county registrar and/or the state number in the upper right-hand corner.

Parents are urged to hunt up this plain photostatic copy now, and if they can't find it, or if it doesn't have the required notation, to apply at once for a certified copy of the birth certificate. A certified copy may be secured from the Division of Vital Statistics, State Board of Health, Jackson, for $1.00.

BAPTISTS BELIEVE...
GOD LOVES EVERY PERSON

During the war a young soldier was seriously injured in battle. He lingered a long time in the hospital and finally was discharged to go home to die. He waited, cheerfully, having committed himself wholly unto God. When the waiting was over his parent went to sit by his body in the funeral home. Scores of friends came offering words of love and sympathy. One of the last to come was an unthoughtful woman whose lack of faith was well known. She said to the boy's mother, "Where was God when your son died?"

"For a moment the mother was overwhelmed. How could she answer that question in so tragic an hour? Then the answer came. She said kindly: 'I'll tell you where God was when my son died. He was at the same place he was when his son died, in heaven reaching out in love and compassion for my son and your son.'"

Few stories could illustrate as well as this on the meaning of the teaching found in the Bible. God's book tells of God's love. It tells of the place of his Son in proving that love. And the Bible tells that life is far from futile, and that death is only a door to the life to come for those who live within the circle of God's love.

The Bible plainly teaches that "God is love" (1 John 4:8). For example, Jesus, the disciple who followed Jesus as he taught and healed people, also tells us, "Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us" (1 John 3:16); and records for us the words of Jesus, "Thou lovest me before the foundation of the world" (John 17:24). God loved us as sinners, for he "commendeth his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8).

Yes, these are the great truths that God's word teaches. Through his word, God speaks personally to you. "God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

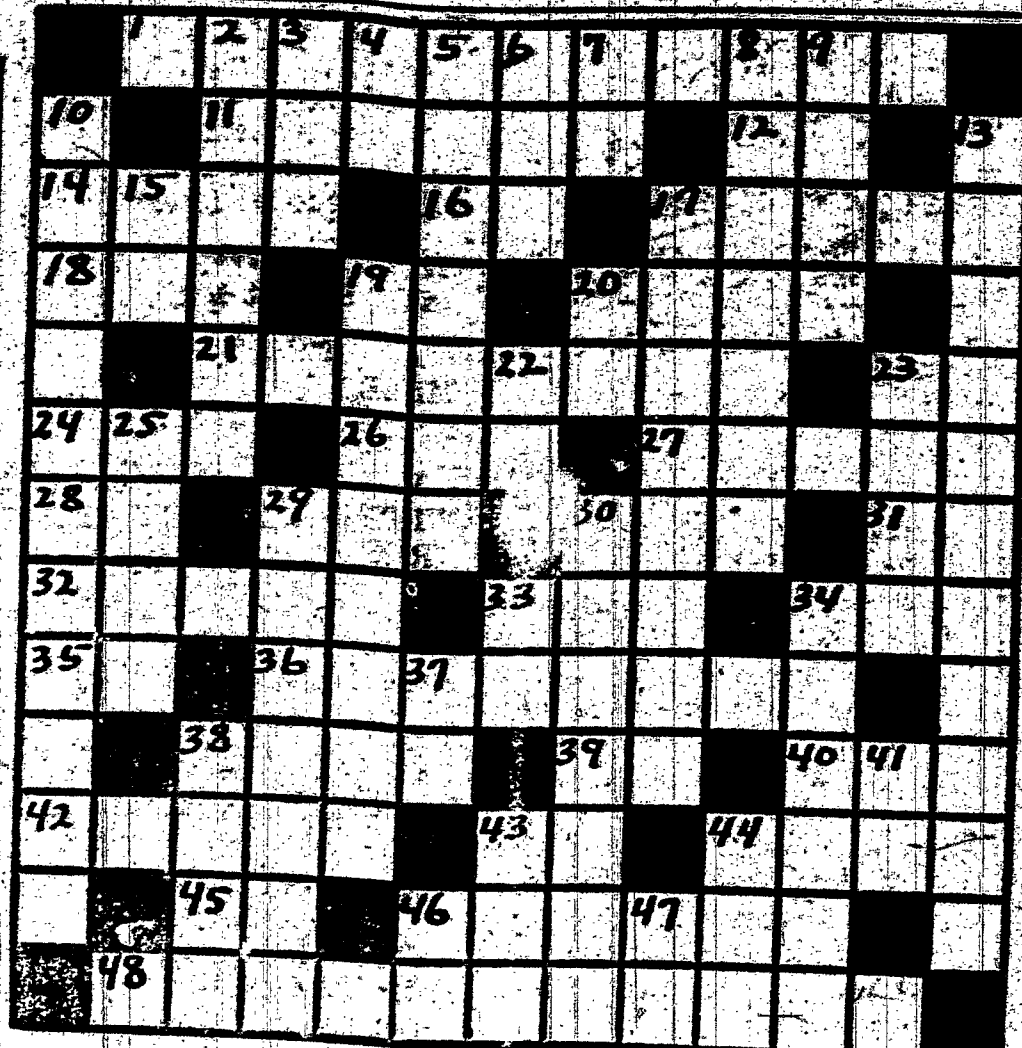

Have you ever tried putting yourself into that verse? Try it now by substituting your name for the word "whoever." If you will do that in faith you will begin to understand the abiding love of God that makes sense out of the puzzles of life. "All things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28).

Yes, this is what the Bible teaches, and this is what Baptists believe. Would you like to know more? We invite you to attend a Baptist church convenient to you or call its pastor.

MID-YEAR OUTLOOK

Crop conditions generally are excellent for another good crop year. Rainfall in most cases has been ample, but the final outcome on production and yields will be largely determined by rainfall and moisture conditions within the next 60 or so days.

Farm prices are looking up. Prices received by farmers are about 9 percent above last December.

Prices paid by farmers are still trending upward, but at a slower rate than in the past—and at a slower pace than the upward swing in prices received. The parity ratio is up 6 percent since last December.

Cattle slaughter so far this year has been considerably above last year. Sales of cattle off grass will increase late this year. Rainfall in most cases has been ample, but the final outcome on production and yields will be largely determined by rainfall and moisture conditions within the next 60 or so days.

NATURAL GAS

Plastics, nylon and the many other "wonder" materials play an important part in our lives today. And natural gas is one of the basic raw materials in the manufacture of these synthetic products. It is used, too, in many processing operations.

United Gas provides to the plants in this great and growing industry, and to all other industrial plants locating along its pipe lines, adequate, uninterrupted supplies of natural gas the year around... an important factor in attracting industry to any community.

POWER
INDUSTRY

Power—electric power—and industry go hand in hand. Without electricity there would be little, if any, industrial development.

Our first job is to provide an ample supply of electricity, at reasonable rates, for all needs in the area we serve. We have done that and we are prepared to handle future requirements.

In addition to that, we have actively participated in the industrial development of the area we serve and of the State. Our New Industries Department was organized in 1926 and is the oldest such department in the entire State. The members of that department spend full time on industrial development, working closely with local and state civic groups.

We will continue our efforts in both fields—the supplying of electricity and the development of industry in Mississippi—will continue to develop and improve.

Lakeshore Notes

By: Mrs. Malcolm B. Green
The sponsors of the benefit for the Lakeshore Cemetery wish to thank all who donated prizes, their time and efforts, also thanks to the many kind people who attended and helped to make the benefit a success.

Mr. Jeff Bosarge was stricken with a heart attack Sunday in his home here and was taken to V. A. hospital in Biloxi where he will remain for some time.

Mr. August Moran wishes to thank his many friends who attended his shooting match Sunday at the Town and Country Lounge. Prize winners were Milton Favre, Audrey Favre, Wallace Jeanfreau and Gary Morris.

Mrs. Georgette Bourlet of New Orleans drove over Saturday with a car full of donations for the cemetery benefit.

Henry Bosarge is still in a critical condition in V. A. hospital in Biloxi where he has been a patient for several weeks. All of Henry's friends are praying for his recovery.

Sometime last Friday evening vandals slashed the tires on a car belonging to Mrs. Henry Bosarge, while she was in Biloxi with her critically ill husband. Sheriff Ladner is investigating this newest low in vandalism and it is hoped that the person or persons responsible will be justly punished for a most despicable deed.

Monroe and Ruth LaFontaine announce the appearance Saturday night of the "Star Dusters," a well known Gulf Coast Negro Jazz Band. Admission to the Town and Country Lounge will be free and all are welcome.

The Lakeshore Civic Assn. held a meeting last Tuesday night and at this meeting an agreement was reached with the mortgage holder and the members present to hold off sale of the hall until further financial arrangements could be made. Members present were: Melvin McCordie, Pres.; Mrs. Horatio Ladner, Treasurer; Mrs. Forrest Ladner, Secretary; also Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stoddle, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Garcia, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Green, John Necaise, "Red" Ladner, Ed Green and Mrs. Burke. Visitors were Emile and Shirley Green, Louise Green, Delores Bosarge, and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Green.

A benefit shooting match will be held in Lakeshore Sunday, Aug. 12, for the "Cemetery Fund." A fine yearling has been donated by D. V. Green of New Orleans and everyone is asked to tell his friends so enough money can be raised to beautify the last resting place of our loved ones.

An election will be held on Saturday August 18th to elect three new trustees for the Lakeshore Cemetery. All interested parties are asked to meet on the Civic Hall grounds at 3 p.m. to elect these badly needed trustees.

The Duffys of New Orleans were over for the weekend to oversee the extensive remodeling job going on at their summer home here.

Little A. J. Garcia spent several days in memorial hospital last week with a leg infection.

The sympathy of our community is extended to Mrs. Nora Carco, whose brother Mr. Martin Gerrathy of New York City, passed away last week.

Staff Sgt. Harold McNutt and his family are now comfortably settled in their newly built home in Tacoma, Washington. Mrs. McNutt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carco of Lakeshore.

Happy birthday to Miss Nora Barthold who recently celebrated her 10th birthday in her Gulfport home.

On July 22, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carco and family drove to Gulfport to witness the breaking of the ground for the new St. John's High School.

Children's Day Held Saturdays At Bay Waveland Yacht Club

The Bay Waveland Yacht Club has inaugurated a special day for the children of its members, which began July 20, and continues until August 25. Hours are from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. with the following ladies in charge of activities.

Mrs. Fernand Lapeyre, Mrs. E. M. Heath Jr., Mrs. Julian O'Neal, Mrs. J. W. Watts, Jr., Mrs. Richard Roth and Mrs. Donald Chamberlain.

Last Friday, the program was received with much enthusiasm by the small fry who enjoyed a day of supervised swimming under the direction of Mrs. Robert Hamilton, Red Cross Survival Tests for the Sailing Program supervised by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Langrind at the Hotel Reed swimming pool before lunch, and Arts and Crafts games, dancing, and sailing in the afternoon with Mrs. Bob Whitmore as instructor for the crafts and Senior and Expert skippers of the club in charge of sailing.

Many of the children have begun work on leather articles including wallets, cigarette cases and belts; and hand painted plates and saucers. The group dancing lessons were well attended and drew quite a group of adult spectators.

In order to purchase material for crafts, games, etc., the parents are asked to pay a registration fee of $2.00 per child, or a fee for the family of $5.00. These registration fees may be mailed to Mrs. J. W. Watts Jr., Watts Road, Bay St. Louis. The must be in before July 27. The children are asked to bring money for lunch which will be served as it is daily by the Ladies Auxiliary, headed by Mrs. Charles Lozano, with Mrs. W. R. Sattler, as chairman.

Children must be nine years old or older to participate.

Home Agents Notes

TRAVELING WITH CHILDREN

With summertime comes vacation time—and this for many means loading the family in the car for a trip. Maybe these hints on traveling comfortably with children will fit your family.

On the first day out, you might find it an advantage to carry a picnic lunch. It will help you use up whatever leftovers are in the refrigerator and make the transition from home to travel more gradual for the children.

Let the children in on planning and prepare them for eating in restaurants and staying in tourist cabins, hotels or camping out by telling them what it will be like.

Pack one small bag with all pajamas and fresh clothes for the following day for the children and keep this bag accessible.

Hang a shoe bag over the back of the front seat. In the pockets place such things as crackers, cheese spreads, and knife for spreading, fruit, toys, as coloring books and crayons. Avoid large toys with sharp edges and allow no scissors because of the danger of sudden stops.

Stop often for a few minutes so the kids can run and stretch. Make it a rule not to let the children get too hungry or too tired.

For a young baby, a car bed in which the motion of the car rocks him to sleep adds to comfort for Mama and baby. A collapsible carriage in which he can sleep in motels and for wheeling him about at various stops is also handy.

MARINE CORPS ACCEPTING TWO YEAR ENLISTMENTS IN AUGUST

First Sgt. David P. Bailey, Marine Corps Recruiter for the Bay area announced today that he can accept young men for a two year enlistment during the month of August. This plan enables young men to satisfy their military obligation while giving them the opportunity to travel or to learn a trade, he declared.

Sgt. Bailey is in Bay St. Louis every Thursday at the County Court House and will be available to answer any questions regarding enlistment in the Marine Corps or Marine Corps Reserve.

that are demanding when it comes to refrigeration. Experiments show that quality of eggs will drop as much in 3 days at 99 degrees as if they were stored for 66 days at 45 degrees.

Egg graded eggs from refrigerated cases and get them out of the grocery bag into the refrigerator as quickly as possible. If you have your own eggs at home, gather them often and cool and refrigerate them promptly.

BEACH PARTIES are still a popular pastime for Hancock County residents and visitors alike. The municipal beach, attracting hundreds of out-of-towners each weekend, has proved a very popular asset for Bay St. Louis and Hancock County. In the picture above Miss Louise Woodward, Mountain Lakes, N. J., is shown next to a "bonfire." Everett Kergosien and Miss Pat Smith are pictured enjoying a watermelon party on the sand beach, part of the Mississippi Gulf Coast's 28-mile man-made beach, largest in the world.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Farrington and Mrs. Smith conduct art classes and do portrait, oil and watercolor work. They cordially invite the public to visit the Palette.

Ric Gatti, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gatti, celebrated his first birthday at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Arceneux earlier in the month with fifteen of his young friends present.
